

ENGINEERING. It's Practically Amazing!

The Broward and Dade Chapters of the Florida Engineering Society cordially invite you to the...

FES BROWARD / PALM BEACH / DADE
FLORIDA MARLINS
ENGINEERING FUN NIGHT

New York Mets vs. Florida Marlins
Thursday, September 20, 2007
Dolphin Stadium – Miami, Florida
Game Time: 7:05 P.M.

You can start picking up your tickets at Will Call at Gate G at 5:30 P.M., enter through Gate F, and catch batting practice. At 6:30 P.M., a Two-Hour complimentary beer, wine, and soda bar (cash bar for liquor) and a catered buffet including hot dogs, sausage, tacos, popcorn, chips and dip, salads, and dessert will be provided in the newly renovated, and air-conditioned, Group Hospitality Area which is located on the Club Level on the east side of the stadium.

At 7:05 P.M., the Florida Marlins will take on the division-leading New York Mets. All attendees will receive a club seat for the game, but the food and drink will continue in the Group Hospitality Area throughout the evening until 8:30 P.M.

Tickets are only $60 per person all inclusive. So ... please join us for a fun night with your fellow engineers, family, and friends at a great price. RSVP to Cheryl Francis at 561-487-3379 or cherylf@c3ts.com and mail this form with your check to 21301 Powerline Road, Suite 311, Boca Raton, Florida 33433 by Friday, September 7, 2007 to ensure your place for the event.
